

Jefferson Collins Academy plant 400 trees at Caddo

By Bridget Ortigo
Feb. 4, 2016 at 4 a.m.

JEFFERSON - Jefferson High School horticulture students teamed up with the Collins Academy on Wednesday to plant more than 400 trees at the Caddo Lake Wildlife Refuge in Karnack.

The purchase of the trees was funded by the U.S. Fisheries and Wildlife Service grant through the Collins Academy. About seven students teamed up with Collins Academy workers, U.S. Foresters and Texas Master Naturalists to plant the trees in and around a duck pond on the refuge.

SHARE

Comments

0 Comments

Sort by Oldest

Add a comment...

 Facebook Comments Plugin

